COLLECTORS please take the annual Mass Count again this week and write the numbers down on the list in the sacristy. Last week saw the largest number at weekend Mass since before Covid. Please pray that the younger families also will soon return.

CONGRATULATIONS to Joseph Royle and Hannah Purslow, who were married here on Saturday. We ask God to bless them and give them a long and happy marriage.

ST MONICA'S PRIMARY SCHOOL GOVERNORS are seeking to appoint a new Head Teacher for January 2023. Details and deadlines are on the church noticeboard.

THE SANCTUARY CAFÉ is having a pre-Christmas sale with up to 40% off books, gifts, and cards – from Tuesday 4th October till Saturday 8th October. The café will be open till 7.00pm on Tuesday 4th.

ALISON DONALD asks to be able through this newsletter to inform all her friends that she has moved into Lady of the Vale NH, Grange Road, Bowdon, Altrincham WA14 1PQ.

THE CATHOLIC POST A more or less free Catholic monthly newspaper has been launched by a successful publisher of Diocesan materials. There is a pile of copies for September in the church porch. Please help yourself and look at it and tell me if you think it is worth my ordering some copies each month. Next week a souvenir of Queen Elizabeth II is available.

READINGS AT MASS The prophet Amos was a reformer, critical of the well-off Israelites of his time, and quite forceful in his language. Some of our parishioners are very comfortable financially, thank God, but those struggling don't publicise that they are in difficulties. The gospel highlights social inequality as a matter for everybody's conscience, in a graphic description of what may happen after death to those who were heedless of the needs of others.

NEXT WEEKEND begins the month of October. We could maybe pray the rosary each day for world peace,
